11. [REDACTED] SA/DDS, advised that David Martin, on the staff of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, has called [REDACTED] of the Air America office, to get some information from him on the drug situation and Carter is to meet with Martin on Monday.

12. [REDACTED] In response to his request yesterday, referred Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, to the Department of State for statistics on the immigration influx into Hong Kong from Mainland China and told him that we do not have any information which would substantiate his characterization of the unpublished Paul Scott column on this subject. I also referred Mr. Sourwine to the article by Lee Lescaze in today's Washington Post as being a reasonably accurate story. I concurred in Mr. Sourwine's assumption that we had no recent ChiCom defector to substantiate the Scott story.
